CAHA
MEMBER SERVICES ANNUAL RENEWALS
PROCESS and INSTRUCTIONS

CAHA partners with Rocky Mountain Registry for annual membership renewals. This user guide will walk an existing CAHA member through the annual renewal process.

Benefit to Member Associations: This transition to completely online renewals will allow member associations to create an active account, resulting in the ability to re-enter and review information at any time, keep a running log of registrations and payment history, change account and user information as needed, and for those associations managing multiple CAHA numbers, the ability to create one account to manage all of them.

Benefit to CAHA: CAHA will now have real-time access to its member services data, making it easier to audit, providing greater transparency and ease of use, and enabling us to provide better service and more accurate information to our members when needed.

Annual Renewals: Each CAHA member association is required to pay its annual renewal fee, and any per team fees, between July 1 and September 30th of each year. Effective in 2018, the system accepts ONLINE PAYMENTS ONLY. No exceptions will be made.

New Membership Requests: New membership requests cannot be made online. An organization requesting new CAHA membership needs to send an email to: CAHAMembership@gmail.com. An application and criteria for membership can be found on the Member Services page of the CAHA Website. Each request is reviewed on a case by case basis.

Annual Renewal Pricing: The CAHA membership pricing has not changed in several years. CAHA is pleased to be able to continue to hold pricing into the 2018-19 season.

1. The annual membership fee is $50 for new membership applications.
2. Annual membership renewal fee is $20
3. Annual fee per team:
